

ELEVATION & RELIEF MAP OF LUMBINI PROVINCE

Buddha's Birthplace & Western Hills, Nepal · SRTM 1 Arc-Second Hillshade & Hypsometric Tint

Elevation (meters above sea level) · max 6,969 m

Nepal — Province Location

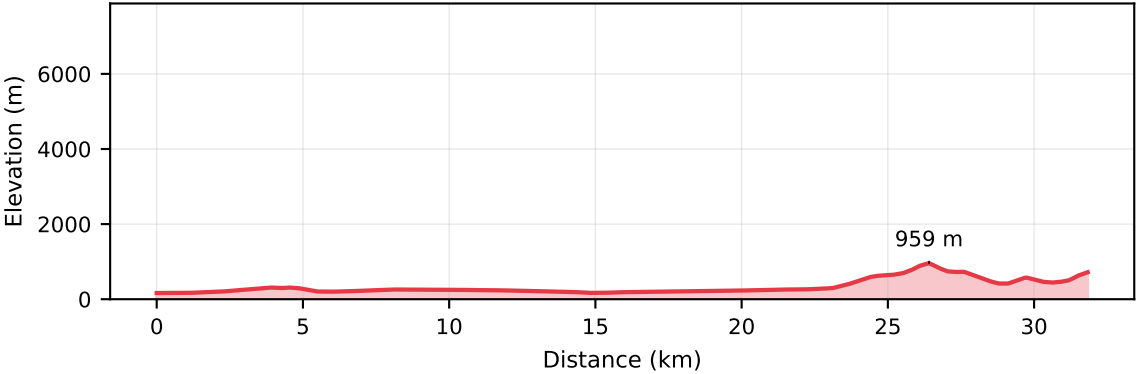

Lake / Pond

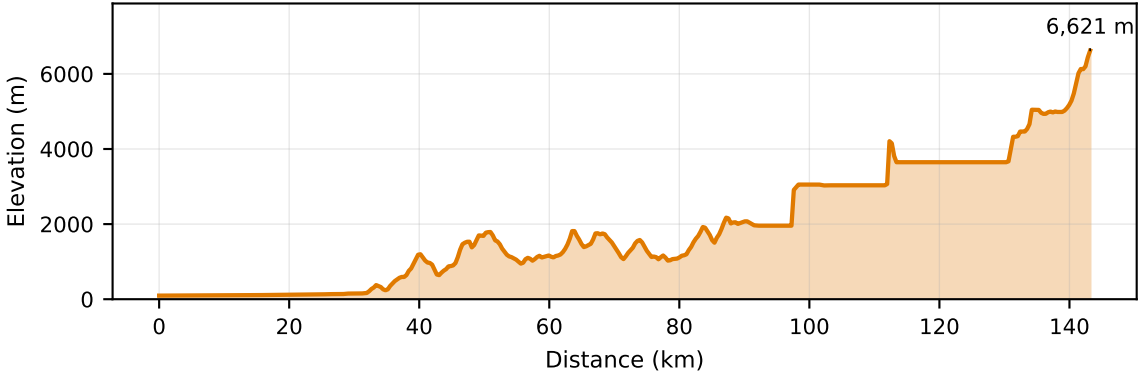

Data source: SRTM 1 Arc-Second Global DEM, NASA/USGS (resampled ≈ 300 m) · Administrative boundary: MoFAGA, via opentechcommunity/map-of-nepal (CC BY 4.0) · Projection: UTM Zone 44N (EPSG:32644)
Rivers & water bodies: Nepal Watercourses (1:25K-50K), Govt. of Nepal, via OCHA/HDX · Map prepared September 2026

Profile A - A' · 81.95°E, South → North

Profile B - B' · 83.14°E, South → North

Lumbini Province spans from the Terai lowlands — home to Lumbini, the birthplace of Siddhartha Gautama Buddha and a UNESCO World Heritage Site — northward across the Dang and Rukum hills toward the Dhaulagiri massif's outer ranges, including Churen Himal (7,371 m) near its northern boundary.